FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Klement's Sausage Co. Signs New Contract Extension with Milwaukee Bucks

Milwaukee, WI (September 15, 2005) – The Klement Sausage Company recently signed a contract renewal to extend their reign as the Official Sausage of the Milwaukee Bucks through the 2005-2006 season.

Through the contract, Klement's retains their status as the Official Sausage of the Bucks. Included in the sponsorship agreement will be exclusive serving rights, logo identification on all menu boards, and television rights. The new deal extends through the 2006 basketball season.

Dan Lipke, Klement's Senior Vice President of Sales and Marketing said, "We are very excited about strengthening a relationship that has existed for the past five years with the Milwaukee Bucks. They are an ideal partner as they provide entertainment value and family fun. As we say, "Klement's is #1 for Taste and Fun."

Dr. Jim Klement, Co-President of Klement's said, "We are proud to extend our partnership with the Milwaukee Bucks as we have always been loyal fans. The Bucks organization is a terrific partner and community citizen. We look forward to continuing our relationship with them."

Headquartered in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Klement's operates out of two production facilities that occupy over 220,000 square feet that produce quality sausage, meat, and deli products. The company began 50 years ago with the foundation of a family's commitment to excellence. Klement's point of difference remains today as they continue to carve out a position of independent quality for generations past and yet to come.
